RACING AT SARATOGA.

First Day of the Extra Meeting of the Saratoga Association.

A BRILLIANT ATTENDANCE.

Charming Weather, a Fast Track and Rapid Running.

FOUR CAPITAL RACES.

Freebooter, Burgoo, Meco and Princess of Thule the Winners.

SARATOGA, August 21, 1876. "I reckon there was frost last night," was the remark an old Kentuckian this morning as he came to the pring with his old wife; he with an overcoat on and the old lady bundled up in a heavy shawi. The old gentleman was not far out of the way, as a farmer who brought in butter and eggs to the Windsor Hotel reported frost up in the hills not many miles from here. w people were out in the Park, and those who were were wrapped up in winter clothing. In the parlors of weather was quite chilly out of the rays of the sun. The change was very sudden, but the people here were generally prepared for it. The alternoon, however, was much warmer and quite pleasant.

The change in the hour of beginning the racing at this place from noon until three o'clock seems to give tatisfaction, and hereafter the Saratova Association like all others in America, will have the running take place in the atternoon. The custom which has pre-vailed here for thirteen years of having the races come off before donner will be aboushed, and the new order of things commence to-day. This change was brought about by the postponement on Saturday last from noon until three o'clock on account of a shower of rain, and this gave the ladies a chance to get through their morn ing decorations, and were ready for the races or a ride the lake in the afternoon, as the case might be. They chose the race course, and the attendance exceeded any previous day of the meeting. This was the cause of the change of the time of the races. Moon, Myers and the other hotel keepers at the lake are much opposed to the change, but as they cannot stop it they must needs put up with it. Many people here, however, think that having these races in the afternoon will be an advantage to the notel keepers, as the races will be over in ample time or the ride to the lake, and that more people will go there now than ever before, as the race course is on the way to that afternoon resort. Another adenntage to be derived from late racing is that whenever there is a very important race to take place New Yorkers can leave their homes in the morning at nine o'clock and be in Saratoga in time to see the sport and return on the evening train. In every way it seems that the change of hour for racing will be popular with the people and profitable to the association.

We had four races to-day, the first a dash of three nd a half, with seven contestants; the third a mile and an eighth, with seven, and the fourth threequarters of a mile, which had six starters, all of which came off in the most satisfactory manner.

THE PIRST RACE was for a purse of $300, maidens allowed if four years old or less, seven pounds; if five years old or upward, twelve pounds; the distance three-quarters of a mile. There were five starters for this event, comprising Scorge Longstaff's brown colt Freebooter, by Kenlucky, dam Felucca, 3 years old, 108 lbs.; John Lawier's bay horse Acrolite, by Asteroid, dam Edith, 8 years old, 122 lbs.; D. A spiendid contest up the homestretch terminated with a victory for Meco by a neck. Violet second, two lengths in front of Gray Nun; Willie Burke fourth, Cyril fifth, Camargo sixth, Lelaps seventh. Camargo pulled up and was troken down very lame, which was the cause of his lailing off so suddenly at the half-mile pole. The time was 1.3854.

Lakeland rode Meco; McKee, Violet; Henry, Gray Nun; Delancy, Willie hurke; Downs, Cyril; Swan, Camargo, and Kelly, Lelays.

THE FOURTH RACE

was for a purse of $400 for two-year-olds, to carry 101

lbs., with the usual allowance for mares and geldings; those not having won a race of the value of $1,800 allowed 4 lbs.; beaten maidens allowed 8 lbs.; the distance three-quarters of a mile. Six colts and fillies came to the post. These were George Longstaff's brown colt Braemer, by Warminster, dam Inversnall, carrying 95 lbs.; D. McDaniel's bay filly Princess of Thuie, by Leamington, dam Photo, 94 lbs., and the same gentleman's chestnut filly sister of Bassett, by Lexington, dam Chanty Bird, 44 lbs.; Thomas Puryear & Co's bay colt Top, by Narragansett, dam Chignon, 101 lbs., and the same gentlemen's chestnut colt Kingsland, by Narragansett, dam Madstone, 101 lbs., and H. Quickfall's bay filly Primrose, by Vauxball, dam Mary Watson, 94 lbs. Puryear's team were favorites over the field, the fine running they have made this season warranting speculators in making investments on them.

The Rack.

To a tolerable start Primcess of Thule took the lead, Ringsland second, Braemer third, Sister to Bassett fourth, Top litth, Primrose sixth. Princess of Thule kept in front up the fractional track, and led on to the regular track, at the half-unite pole, two lengths, Braemer second, two lengths in front of Kingsland; the latter one length shead of Top, Frimrose bringing up the rear. Princess of Thule led three lengths around the lower turn, and as she passed the three-quarier pole she was fully that distance in front of Braemer, he one length in advance of Sister of Bassett, Kingsland fourth, Top litth, Primrose sixth. Getting inc. the homestretch Primcess of Thule maintained the lead, but Top was seen coming through the others like a wild horse, and at the furlong jost was second, and closing up the daylight between himself and the Princess of Thule. The latter kept up a galiant run, however, and wen the race by two lengths, Top second, a nick in front of Kingsland, the latter one length in front of Braemer, Sister of Bassett fifth, Primrose sixth. The time was 1:12.

Delaney rode Princess of Thule, Barnes rode Top; Rose, Kingsland; Swim, Braemer; Spilman, Sister of Bassett, and Johnson, Primrose.

The Paris Mutuels paid § 37:50.

BROOKLYN'S NATIONAL GUARDSMEN BEFORE THE BUTTS.

The Eleventh brigade of the Second (Brooklyn) division, N.G.S.N.Y , sent out to Creedmoor yesterday detachments from the several corps composing it. The Twenty-third regiment had in the field ninety officers and men; the Thirty-second nineteen, and the Forty-seventh, forty-two, making sitogether 151 officers, non-commissioned officers and rank and file, out of a total of 551 men of all ranks who on former occasions had qualified in the third class, and who ought to have been in the field yesterday to complete the regulation practice in the second class.

Colonel H. E. Roehr, of the Thirty-second regiment, was the field officer in command of the detachments; Brigade Inspector of Rife Practice, Captain W. W. Rossiter, directed the firing along the ranges; Captain Jos, of the Twenty-third regiment, performed the duties of officer of the day; Adjutant Karcher, of the Twenty-third regiment, was executive staff officer, and

MEETING OF THE COMMITTEE TESTERDAT-DE-CISION AS TO THE CLAIMS OF CERTAIN CARS-MEN-THE PROGRAMME OF THE REGATTA FOR TO-DAY AND WEDNESDAY.

PHILADELPHIA, August 21, 1876.

The Regatta Committee of the National Amsteur Oarsmen Association held a long and tedious session this afternoon and evening, for the purpose of considering the very important and rather delicate question as to the status of certain oarsmen whose claims to be amateurs have long been regarded as dubious, to say the least. It was a matter of much discussion both inside and out of the meeting room at the Philadelphia Boat Club House, of the Schuyikill, where the regatta committee assembled, and the action of the committee on this much vexed point was looked forward to with the greatest interest. The more so, from the fact that their decision is final, and will also be respected by the Centenmial International Regatta Committee. After a long deliberation in private the clumsily written resolutions given below were entered on the minutes, which, as will be seen, are not particularly satisfactory, as they beg the question to a certain extent. The mountain has been in labor, and the result is this mouse.

Moved, That in view of the charges made against Mr. E. K. Smi h, of the Argonauta Rowing Association of Bergen Point, N. J., we, the committee, do not consider Mr. Smith qualified to row in the approaching regatts. Carried.

Resolved, That insamuch as the cases of other members of the Argonauta crew are involved in considerable doubt, we have, in view of the evidence adduced, decided that this committee is not warranted at that time in taking decided action thereon. Carried.

The case of James H. Riley, of the Neptune Boat Club, was not passed upon. Therefore he remains ineligible to row under a former decision.

Smith was barred on evidence furnished by W. H. Hills, president of the Beaverwycks.

It is a great disappointment that the cases of other members of the Argonauts, the Atalanias and other clubs were not passed upon, one way or the other.

The members of the Regatta Committee are Russis, stroke oar of the Atalanias, a Parker, of the Quaker Cluy, Philadelphia, Krumbhoar, of the Philadelphia Philadelphias, Bailey, of the Anaivatom, Washington, and Garfield, of the Mutual, Boston.

TEN REGATE PROGRAMME.

After this psuedo settlement of the semi-professional question positions were drawn for the regatta, beginning to morrow, and the ioliowing programme made out for to-morrow and next day:—

THE FLEET AT EDGARTOWN-A REGATTA AT NEWPORT, FOR A CUP, TALKED OF-BEVERAL OF THE TACHTS GONE WEST.

MARTHA'S VINETARD, Mass., August 21, 1876. The cruise of the New York Yacht Club fleet has proved rather barren and eventiess as compared with those of former years, and even the compromise on the elaborate Broad street programme will not now be carried out. The fleet have remained at Edgartown all day with the exception of the ldier and Wanderer, which sailed for Gloucester this morning. The Mets, which sailed for Gloucester this morning. The Meta, Rambler and Alice will go west to-morrow. This will leave the Estelle, Vindex, Arrow, Josephine, Foam, Restless, Dreadnaught and Alarm to go to Gloucester. It is almost certain that not more than half of them will do so. The schooner Haze, owned by Dr. Mott, of New London, and the sloop Gracie are here. The Haze leaves for the west to morrow.

It is on the programme to have a regetta for a cup at Newport if the fleet unites there again, but there is nothing definite about it. The Madeleine, Vision and Windward have already gone west.

DWYRR ACCEPTS COBURN'S CHALLPIGE. PHILADELPHIA, August 20, 1876.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:-I was somewhat surprised at seeing Mr. Coburn's card in your paper of this morning. Now, I would just say one or two words. I am on my way to wrestle Miller in Baltimore; expect to be home Tuesday or Wednesday of next week. I only wish to say that I will accommodate Mr. Coburn any time be may see fit, and I think I will take all the doubts from his mind at our next meeting. Yours, respectfully,

LONG BRANCH.

PATAL ACCIDENT-AN EXCITING RUNAWAY-THE OCEAN SWIMMING MATCH-ENTERTAINMENTS

TO COME OFF.
LONG BRANCH, August 21, 1876. A distressing accident occurred at the West End Hotel yesterday evening. The son of Mr. Keyes, of Baltimore, aged about twelve years, was on the top of the omnibus as it stood at the door waiting for the passengers to the last train. The horses started suddenly, and the poor boy was thrown to the road, fracturing his skull. He died at half-past one this morning.

To-day an intense excitement was occasioned by a dangerous runaway. Mrs. Hildreth, the wife of one of the proprietors of the West End Hotel, was driving in a light wagon with two of her children when the horse took fright and ran away. Being a powerful and fast horse he was quite beyond Mrs. Hildreth's control, horse he was quite beyond Mrs. Hildreth's control, who, however, being a good driver, managed to keep him in the road and to turn the corner opposite the West End Hotel safely. The hotel guests who crowded the balconies were mach excited as the horse dashed past the house. Mrs. Hildreth guided the horse on to the road, passing the club house, out at that moment she heard the railroad whistle. The track crosses the road a short distance above the hotel, and Mrs. Hildreth, as a last resort, turned the horse into the lane leaving to the stables. As she turned, however, the wagon strack a post on the corner and smashed it to atoms, Mrs. Hildreth and the two children being thrown into the road. The guests rushed up the road siter the vehicle, and it was at first thought that all must have been killed. Providentially, however, the whole party escaped with some severe bruises.

The swimmers, Trautz and Wade, who are now in active training for their match on August 31, swam opposite the West End to-day in the presence of a large number of spectators. Their performances in the water proved them to be excellent swimmers, and the occan match is looked forward to with much interest. Frautz is the favorite in the betting, but Wade is a powerful swimmer and the match will, no doubt, be well contexted.

The regatta of the Long Branch Rowing Association is to take place on Wednesday next, at Pleasure Bay, and will be largely attended. There are ten entries for the single scull race.

A subscription full dress ball, under the auspices of the association, takes place at the West End Hotel, on Thursday next, which will be a gra: affair. The prominent patrons of the ball are Mr. and Mrs. John thosy, Mr. and Mrs. Diank, Mr. and Mrs. Dandock, Mr. and Mrs. Diank Mrs. Padock, Mr. and Mrs. Diank Mrs. Padock.

The reference is the hotel. The Presid who, however, being a good driver, managed to England Field, was made umpire. The timekeepers are Messrs, Guiston, of the London Club; Close, of the Trinity (Cambridge) crew; Captain Barrington, of the Undine, Philadelphia. The Argonatra Potes. The entertainment in aid of the Catholic church will not be able to row as a four because of the liness of one of their crew.

Stern, of New York, the counsel for the assignee of the Drew estate, put in their appearance. It will be remembered that the examination was adjourned to allow Mr. Robinson time to prepare accounts of his transactions with Mr. Drew. Mr. Robinson stated, yesterday, that he had been unable to get the full statement ready, and requested a little more time. By consent of Mr. Stern the examination was again deferred until one week from to-day, when there is little doubt that it will be proceeded with. The statement, so far as prepared, covers a period of about five years, and involves amounts aggregating $75,000,000.

MRS. JOSEPHINE COOK'S FUNERAL.

Yesterday afternoon at two o'clock Mrs. Josephine Cook, the daughter of Mr. Joseph H. Tooker, the business manager of Booth's Theatre, was buried from the Church of the Strangers. Many relatives and friends accompanied the remains from the residence of the deceased in West Twenty-second street, and when Rev. Dr. Deems appeared to perform the last sad rites the spacious church was crowded to the doors. The casket lay upon a raised pedestal, and all around it were the floral tributes of affection and esteem which sorrowing friends had sent. In this circle of beauty and fragrance were several elegant pieces. One of these, a cross five leet high, stood, upon a broad pedestal bearing the inscription "Our Niece." This was the offering of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Forence. A magnificent combination of hearts, crosses and anchors from Messas Jarrett & Paimer stood next. Then there was an anchor from K. A. Sothern and a large wreath from Mrs. Norman Wiard. Other floral tributes were grouped around, aimost biding behind a wall of delicate this the casket. Nearly all the representative theatrical managers of New York and numbers of the profession were present. Among those last were Mr. and Mrs. Florence and Mrs. Barney Williams, who were relatives of the deceased. Dr. Deems at the close of the funeral service made a few touching remarks on the yeath and virtues of the dead, and uttered a word of convolution for those who explored her loss. The body was then conveyed to Greenwood for interment. The deceased, who was the wife of Mr. Henry Cook, of the firm of Leonard, Cook & Co., was only twenty years of age at the time of her death, and leaves a child, in giving birth to whom she died. these, a cross five leet high, stood, upon a broad ped-
